

THE KINGSLEY GROUP DIFFERENCE

The Kingsley Group is a Louisiana-based firm that differentiates itself from other companies by delivering cost-effective, concrete solutions to clients in need of management and advisory services. The background of Kingsley Group principals includes advisory roles in corporate bankruptcies, commercial litigation, valuations, and merger and acquisition activity. Our principals have qualified as experts in federal, state and bankruptcy courts. In addition to these responsibilities, members of the Kingsley Group have assumed interim management roles in troubled companies ranging from distressed regional firms to Fortune 500 companies that are moving through complex transitions or bankruptcy proceedings. Past Kingsley Group engagements include diverse roles in financial and strategic planning and assistance in financial and accounting system design.

Kingsley Group is experienced and specializes in these and other industries:

- Hotel, motel and tourism
- Healthcare
- Oil and Gas
- Professional Services
- Information Technology
- Construction
- Transportation

The Kingsley Group's talents are varied enough to encompass many types of firms and industries, yet our focus is sufficiently detailed so that clients receive personalized, specific attention. Our excellence, expertise and detail to quality are well suited to any client's needs.
